

S R I K R I S H N A

JANMASHTAMI

1008

B H O G A O F F E R I N G S

*Every dot above is one offering — the bright one is YOURS

COOK FOR KRISHNA

Six simple rules for preparing your bhoga at home

- 01 Cook only pure vegetarian food with fresh, natural ingredients, check the labels
- 02 No tasting or smelling of items before the offering
- 03 Clean your kitchen before cooking
- 04 Best to use utensils and cookware reserved only for Krishna
- 05 Cook after taking a shower, wearing clean, fresh clothes, with your hair covered
- 06 Cook fresh on the same day of the offering

STRICTLY AVOID

Please also avoid pans that have ever been used to cook these items.

DATE

Friday,
4 September 2026

DROP-OFF

15:00 – 17:00

QUANTITY

350 ml per offering
We will transfer bhoga into small containers

Last day to register: Thursday, 27 August

Questions? Pooja Mtj · +91 97425 86663

WHAT CAN YOU OFFER?

Choose any category below, and register your dishes in the sheet so we cover all 1008.

Sweets – milk based

Kheer, burfi, sandesh, rasagulla, rabri

Fried savouries

Samosa, kachori, pakora, vada

Rice preparations

Pulao, lemon rice, tamarind rice, khichdi

Sabji – vegetable dishes

Wet and dry curries, paneer, kofta

Drinks & beverages

Lassi, sharbat, fruit juice, panakam

Sweets – grain / flour based

Halava, laddoo, jalebi, malpua

Dry snacks & namkeen

Chivda, murukku, mathri, chakli

Dal, kadhi & soups

Moong dal, sambar, kadhi, rasam

Breads

Puri, paratha, chapati, thepla

Fruits, salads & chutneys

Fruit platter, raita, chutney – or anything else!

Let's celebrate Janmashtami by offering our love through food!